In school work as in all things else, anticipations are rarely met, ideals never fully realized. The closing of our schools for the year was accompanied with so many indications of progress on the part of the pupils and with so much satisfaction to the teachers, that the Board of Education could not but feel gratified with the examinations and that the reports of the work of the year should be so favorable. The teachers have manifested a spirit of interest in their work that could scarcely be excelled by any like number of toilers in any field. It is with feelings of regret that we are to lose the services of two such efficient teachers as Mr. Clark and Miss Carter. The Board of Education are authorized by the laws of the state to enforce the law in regard to truants, and children between the ages of six and sixteen not attending school, and to compel the attendance of such truants or children at school in obedience to law and the regulations of said Board of Education, not repugnant to the laws of the state.

In conclusion we would say that while never wasteful of the people's money we shall not be more economical than we can afford to be, and so miss providing extra opportunities for the bestowment of a better education for the pupils of our schools.

S. C. BAKER,

Sec. Board of Education.

Report of the School Board.

Whole No. of weeks of school during the year, 29 ; taught by H. S. Worthen. Wages per month, $24.

1st term.—Whole No. of weeks, 10 ; No. of scholars, 11 ; average attendance 10 ; not absent, 4.

2d term.—No. of weeks, 10 ; average attendance, 10 ; not absent, 3.

3d term.—No. of weeks, 9 ; No. scholars, 9 ; average attendance, 8 ; not absent, 1.

Della S. Jones was neither absent nor tardy during the year.

Our first terms were very prosperous schools. The last term was somewhat broken up by sickness.

We had a very good teacher who deserves much credit ; but we think if the parents would take more interest in our schools, it would make it easier for our teachers and better for our scholars.

W. S. CALLEY.

School No. 1.—Spring term ; taught by Miss Carrie M. Dalton ; No. of weeks, 7 3-5 ; wages per month, $25 ; No. of pupils, 22 ; average attendance, 17 ; roll of honor, 3.

Fall term ; taught by Miss Hattie L. Upton ; No. of weeks, 10 ; wages per month, $28 ; No. of pupils, 23 ; average attendance, 19 ; roll of honor, 2 ; No. of visitors, including parents, citizens and others, 29.

Our school have been very prosperous. We have been successful in securing excellent teachers ; they have given their undivided attention to the school. The scholars, as a general thing, have made good progress in all the branches taught. It would promote the welfare of our schools very much if there was more money expended for globes, charts and other school supplies. Much of the lack of progress for which the teacher is often blamed, is on account of not having needful supplies to aid in teaching.

BEN F. PEASE.
